SERIES OF SIRMONS.

Rev. W. A. Slaymaker will preach the second in the series of discourses on the "Benediction of Our Savior" at 8 o'clock p. m. Sunday, "Biessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted"—Mat. 5.4. The series began on hast Sunday night with Mat. 5.3—"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven."

These "Benedictions" are the text of our Lord to indicate the purpose of His living, teaching and suffering, and the reveintion of the highest good of man. The object of these discourses, therefore, is to show the scoop, design and blessings of the Gospel. Subject of morning discourse, "Be Not Faithless, But Belleving."

BERKLEY COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

Rev. M. W. Butler, president of the Board of Trustees and a member of the Board of Trustees and a member of the faculty of the Berkley Collegiate Institute for the past few years, and Miss Margaret Tatem, the popular and efficient primary teacher, expect to continue a co-educational school of high grade in town, and while Prof. Roberts retires, mest of the old faculty will remain, with others probably added. A gentleman of ability will be principal, and while Mr. Butler will not teach regularly, he will be a constant visitor at the school and assist in its government. Several good locations central to the population are being considered. A catalogue will be issued soon, naming a full and strong faculty. They expect to supply the new quarters with patent desks and modern equipments.

BREVITIES.

Messrs, Parks & Roach will serve a free lunch to the general public at their cafe this evening from 6:39 to 11:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited. The public is cordially invi

SOUTH CAROLINA—MARTINS INDUSTRY LIGHT VESSEL.—Notice is hereby given that on July 15, 1899. Light Vessel No. 53, moored off Port Royal entrance, outside of Martins Industry Shoal, and about 15 miles to the eastward of Tybec Lighthouse, will be temporarily withdrawn from her station for repairs, and Relief Light Vessel No. 29 will be placed on the station.

Refer Light Vessel No. 29 will show two fixed white reflector lights, but during thick or foggy weather she will sound a bell struck by hand instead of a 12-inch steam whistle.

The vessel has two masts, schooner rigged, but differs from Light Vessel No. 53 in having a white hull with "Relief" in black on each side, and "No. 29" in black on each quarter, and in not having a smokestack between the masts.

By order of the Light-House Board: FRANCIS J. HIGGINSON, Rear Admiral, U. S. N., Chairman,

The Karg Oil and Gas Co., of Cincin-nati, has been organized to bore for oil and gas, and will utilize machinery for pumping.

It is reported that the recent increase n capital of the Illinois Wire Co., of Sycamore, Ill. is for the purpose of en-larging its plant.

Albert A. Wilcox, of Paterson, N. J., is a director in the People's Brewing Co., recently incorporated with $1,000, 000 capital stock.

There is a possibility thef a steam-shovel works will be located at New Castle, Ind., by Grant Wiggins, of Richmond, Ind., and others.

Complexion and Hair Specialists.

The brilliant complexions of women in the more exclusive circles of New York society are not explained by the theory that associates beauty and ideness. In fact, many leaders of the world of fashion are hard workers. Yet they keep their good looks even when they are old. How do they manage it? THE MISSES BELL, of 78 Fifth Avenue, New York, themselves connected with some of the most noted and honored families in the metropolis, have answered the question. They have prepared for the use of women in general, five preparations for improving the complexion and the hair.
